CP281

Located at Via della Spiga 7, the space exudes an atmosphere of contemporary, material luxury, characterised by sophisticated design and skilful use of lighting.

Comprising three main rooms with herringbone parquet flooring and dark, enveloping walls that highlight the designer furnishings, large geometric LED light installations dominate the lounge area, complete with large modular sofas and a full-height metal bookcase.

The generous floor space includes an impressive corridor, a welcoming entrance area, a designer bathroom and a functional storage room for event logistics.
